

News Release

USDA Maui County Farm Service Agency
77 Ho'okele St., Ste# 201, Kahului, HI 96732

Contact: James Robello, County Executive Director
(808) 871-5500 extension 353
james.robello@hi.usda.gov

Livestock Workshop

Wailuku, Hawaii, July 3, 2008 - The Maui Cattleman's Association and the Maui County Farm Bureau is inviting all livestock operators to attend a one day workshop featuring speakers on forage chain management and forage finished beef, goats and sheep. The workshop class will be held Friday, July 18 at the Oskie Rice Arena Clubhouse. Dr. Anibal Pordomingo from Argentina will be the featured speaker.

Dr. Pordomingo is an educator and rancher who has done a lot of work in Argentina and around the world. He will talk about forage chains and grass finishing operations. He will also be visiting several ranches on Maui to develop an understanding of Hawaii's growing conditions.

Location: Oskie Rice Arena Clubhouse
Start: 8:00 AM
Lunch: 11:30 to 12:30, maybe a working lunch.
Finish: 4:00 PM
Attendance Fee: $15.00 per person will cover lunch and refreshments. Payment due at the class.

Space is limited, so please REGISTER BY JULY 15, by phone or email to:

Bobby Brooks Cell: 808-757-2168
 Fax: 808-572-7288
 Email: bbrooks@haleakalaranch.com
William Jacintho Cell: 808-283-1316
 Email: jacintho@hawaii.edu